

EVERGREEN CRANK SISTERS IS SEEKING NEW COMMITTEE MEMBERS!

Crank Sisters are committed to the mission and vision of Evergreen Mountain Bike Alliance and that of the Evergreen Crank Sisters specifically. Evergreen Crank Sisters aims to increase women's participation in mountain biking and help women achieve their riding goals...for all levels of riders.

Committee members are willing to dedicate time, ensure mission advancement and serve as ambassadors within the community to deepen Evergreen's relationships with all members, industry stakeholders and supporters.

Committee Members spend up to 8 hours a month attending monthly meetings, working at home on prep and administrative duties and attending events. Currently, the committee consists of a Chair, Secretary, Ride Director, Marketing Director and Treasurer. We are looking for new members to join us!

APPLICATION PROCESS

If you are interested in becoming an Evergreen Crank Sisters Committee member, please fill out the application below and include any relevant information that may assist us in evaluating your ability to have a positive impact. You can anticipate an initial response from us within a month of receiving your application. All eligible applicants will meet with the sitting Committee Members to discuss their qualifications and interest in taking a more active part in the Crank Sisters community. Please email your application to: jessica@russandjessica.com.
